

The Mystery at the Birdfeeder

Some sample pages.

A special part of my job is to look after the birdfeeder. During the winter months, I like to watch it from the warmth of the big house.

We try to keep the birdfeeder full of seed. All different kinds of birds like the seed. But one morning, there was a mystery.

Purdy, an English Setter, looks after the yard.

I looked out of the window and the birdfeeder was lying on the ground. It was not broken, but the seed was all gone. What happened?

The last of the winter snow had fallen on the ground. I didn't see any birds, any animals, or any tracks. I needed to find out what happened!

*We filled the birdfeeder again and hung it in its place.
I sat on my dog house to see what I could find out.*

*I spotted Carl, the Cardinal, up in his favorite tree.
“Can you help me solve the mystery of the birdfeeder?” I asked.*

*Moments later, Will, the White Breasted Nuthatch, landed on top of the feeder
"Look, the birdfeeder is back up!"*

*"Did you see who knocked it down?"
I barked. "No," replied Will.
"I just saw it on the ground."*

*"I'll be back to snack later!!!!!" sang Nancy as she flew away.
"Well, she didn't eat much," Carl chirped to me.*

*Terry, the Tufted Titmouse, flew in and landed on the feeder.
He was hungry for some brunch.*

As he landed, he stretched his wings and asked "When was the birdfeeder picked up?"

*Carl answered, "It was put back up this morning. Did you notice who knocked it down?"
Charlie grabbed a bite and flew over to talk to Carl.*

The glossary in the back of the book includes information on all 8 different birds in the story.

www.TheBirdBooks.com